

Call for Articles

The Greenbrier Historical Society (GHS) is requesting submissions for the 2017 edition of The Journal of the Greenbrier Historical Society. The 2017 journal will take a new direction with its content, format, and publication. This year, the society is looking to publish the following:

- Primary Historical Research Papers
- Academic Reviews of Historical Books
- Family History
- History of Museum Artifacts
- Articles on Artifact Conservation
- Document Discovery
- Oral History Interviews
- And Much More

Deadline for Proposals: March 1, 2017.. Authors should submit a one to two paragraph proposal for their article. Proposals, along with authors' contact information, should be submitted via e-mail to the Journal Editor editor@greenbrierhistorical.org.

Completion Date: August 1, 2017. The Journal Editor must receive the completed article. Each article will be edited to ensure its quality of exposition.

As part of the Society's mission, GHS seeks submissions that help interpret the history of the Greenbrier Valley Region, to include: Greenbrier County, Monroe County, Summers County, and Pocahontas County.

GHS looks forward to receiving proposals in response to this call and is happy to respond to inquiries from interested parties. Questions may be addressed to the Journal Editor via email at editor@greenbrierhistorical.org. Your participation in this effort to produce new articles will contribute to the written body of knowledge of the history of the Greenbrier Valley Region.

For a complete list of submission guidelines please view our posting on our website greenbrierhistorical.org or email the Director at director@greenbrierhistorical.org
